Eight Injured in Devastating Collision

Tangi Times Report

At approximately 6:25pm on Monday, September 22, Anthony P. Conley was driving a white 2015 Chevrolet Silverado pickup northbound on Hwy 51 in Ponchatoula at a high rate of speed. After running off the roadway at least once in front of Murphy USA near Walmart, Conley continued north until colliding with a 2014 GMC Terrain carrying a driver and three passengers near the T-section of St. Patrick's Blvd.

The impact was so violent that the Terrain was spun into a third vehicle, a 2024 Hyundai Tucson carrying a driver and three child passengers, ages 2, 5, and 7.

The truck veered off the road again into the ditch on the east side of the highway, then launched out of the ditch through a wooden power pole, severing it into three pieces. The truck came to rest inverted in the ditch.

The impact with the pole interrupted electrical and other utilities to the businesses along Hwy 51 from the Ponchatoula Creek to E Hoffman Rd.

Ponchatoula Fire Department (PFD) used the Jaws of Life to access the children in the rear of the Tucson. All eight occupants of the Terrain and the Tucson were taken by Acadian to the hospital, and the three children were then airlifted to Our Lady of the Lake Children's Hospital in Baton Rouge.

While being interviewed by Ponchatoula Police Department (PPD), Conley stated that there were two occupants in the Silverado and that he was a passenger in the truck – not the driver. However, detectives quickly determined that Conley was, indeed, the driver and sole occupant of the truck.

The next day, PPD detectives procured a warrant to take blood from Conley for analysis by Louisiana State Police Crime Lab, and he was processed at approximately 11:00am at PPD headquarters. He was delivered to North Oaks for medical evaluation and then taken to the Tangipahoa Parish Jail and booked at 6:48pm on September 23 on the following charges:

1 count(s) felony hit and run

1 count(s) felony obstruction of justice

8 count(s) misdemeanor negligent injuring

1 count(s) misdemeanor – operating a vehicle while the license is suspended

Some of the victims remain in critical condition. According to

Most of us carry around a pocket-sized personal trainer without realizing it. Sure, smartphones and smartwatches are good at nagging us about our step count, but those gadgets can do way more than just tell us we haven't walked enough today. With a little creativity, they can actually help us live healthier, happier, and maybe even slightly less frazzled lives.

For starters, let's talk sleep. Your smartwatch isn't just for checking the time when you wake up at 3am wondering if it's morning yet.

Many devices track sleep cycles, nudging you toward better rest by showing how much time you spend in dreamland versus tossing and turning. Some even offer gentle alarms that wake you up when you're in a lighter sleep stage, which feels far less like being hit with a foghorn.

Then there's hydration. Forget buying fancy water bottles with blinking lights. Your phone can remind you to sip throughout the day, and some apps even let you log your water intake so you can finally stop wondering if three cups of coffee count as hydration.

(Spoiler: not really.)

Stress management is another hidden gem. A lot of smartwatches come with built-in mindfulness exercises, guided breathing, or heart rate monitoring that clues you in on when you might need a moment to calm down.

Instead of ignoring the signs, your watch basically waves its tiny digital arms and says, "Hey, you're about to snap — maybe take a breath."

Food tracking has also gotten a serious upgrade. Snap a photo of your lunch, and certain apps can estimate calories and nutrition without you having to do math.

Phones can also scan barcodes on groceries, revealing what's actually hiding in that "healthy" snack bar. Think of it as carrying around a tiny nutritionist who doesn't charge by the hour.

And let's not forget posture. Sitting hunched over like a shrimp may be a national pastime, but wearable devices can detect slouching and buzz to remind you to sit up straight. You might feel bossed around, but your back will thank you later.

Heart health, menstrual cycle tracking, medication reminders, and even monitoring air quality

Safety Tip of the Day

HOME SAFETY TIPS

If you're home alone and you have a worker coming to the house, you are never alone, even if you are. In some homes or apartments this is not possible, so in that case you're always expecting someone. The strategy to use will depend on how long the worker is expected to be in your home. If it's a short visit, go to the bathroom, turn on the shower, turn a fan, the light and close the door so it seems like somebody was in there taking a shower.

If you can't make it seem like someone is there, hop on the phone with your dad, or a guy friend and make it like they are coming over at any time. Have the conversation on speakerphone so the worker can hear and even say the worker's name, for example " I'm here with John from the plumbing company, he'll be here about 30 mins, so come over whenever you want."

If you see something, say something.

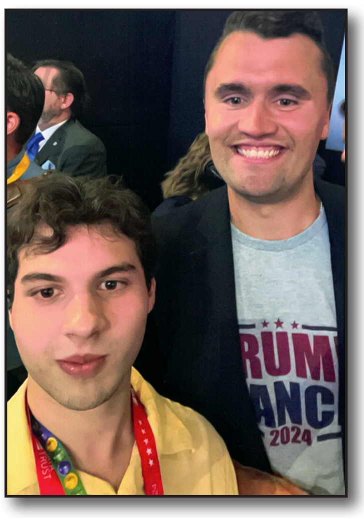
Letter to the Editor

Letter to the Editor

From Jacob Bailey

My name is Jacob Bailey, and I graduated from Ponchatoula High School in 2022 and from Northshore Technical Community College in May of this year.

What I admired about Charlie Kirk is that he was defending the American way of life. I started watching his YouTube videos, and I liked how he would go on college campuses and interact with voters since these are the voters who will determine the future of our country. What I learned from Charlie Kirk is that with enough hard work, you can succeed and live the American Dream, even without any formal education.



Jacob Bailey and Charlie Kirk, 2024

I went to the Republican National Convention in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 2024. I saw him giving a speech influencing Gen Z voters on the fact that we have a choice in the direction our country takes us, a choice that will determine all Americans in the future. When I first met him and shook his hand, he inspired me to follow his example by speaking for what I believe in and encouraging me to take a more active role in guiding our nation.

On the afternoon of September 10, 2025, I received a phone call from my brother Hunter Bailey, who is currently on the Louisiana Republican State Central Committee and was an alternate delegate at the Republican National Convention (RNC) in 2024. I answered my phone, and he yelled, "Charlie Kirk got shot!"

I couldn't believe it, and I was devastated to hear this awful announcement.

I quickly turned on the TV, and it was all over the news. I was watching it with my dad, Tim Bailey, who is currently on the Louisiana Republican State Central Committee and was a delegate at the Republican National Convention (RNC) in 2024. We were all deeply saddened.

I realized that it's important to defend the American way of life, and one person's courage can leave a lasting impact on an entire generation. Charlie Kirk spoke of Romans 8:28 just hours before his death, which reminds us, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." Any good deeds you do, or any act of courage you take in society, may be challenged, but God can still use them for a greater good.

As Charlie Kirk said, "If you believe in something, you need to have the courage to fight for those ideas — not run away from them or try to silence them." He will be remembered for his courage and for standing for the truth to defend all Americans' way of life and to carry on the legacy that will continue to inspire future generations.

A little bit of everything you need to know

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency continues leading cleanup efforts in Roseland, Louisiana, after the August 22 fire at the Smitty's Supply facility released millions of gallons of oil and chemicals into nearby waterways. Crews using containment booms, skimmers, vacuums, and sorbent pads have recovered more than 5.2 million gallons of material from the Tangipahoa River and surrounding ponds, and an added task force is boosting personnel and resources to speed the river cleanup, Parish President Robby Miller said. Drinking water remains safe because the river is not a source, but residents are urged to follow river closures for their safety. The fire, fully extinguished Sept. 8, prompted extensive air monitoring for VOCs, particulate matter, and benzene, with no detections above action levels. EPA officials will answer residents' questions today at the Ponchatoula Library from 10am to noon.

Southeastern Louisiana University congratulates Stephen Labbe' on receiving the College of Education's Distinguished Alumnus Award. An experienced educational leader and former All-Conference baseball player, Labbe' directs the Southeastern Laboratory School, where he has overseen COGNIA accreditation, improved campus safety, and expanded academic programs. Now completing a doctorate in school crisis management, he continues a four-generation family tradition in education while also teaching as a Southeastern adjunct and volunteering through church and youth sports. Alumni and friends are invited to celebrate Labbe' and other honorees at the Alumni Awards Evening.

Southeastern Louisiana University's Dance Performance Project will honor the 14 victims of the New Year's Day New Orleans tragedy with its concert "LA STRONG: 14 Victims," part of the Fanfare arts festival, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 at 7 p.m. in Pottle Auditorium. Directed by Keith "Skip" Costa, the one-hour performance blends dance, music, and video projections to promote healing and solidarity. Dancers include Cali Boudreaux of Lutcher; Trinity Brown, Giavonnia Cervini, and Holly Frisch of New Orleans; Carlie Dodd of Houston; Lauren Drouet of Hammond; Kalleigh Encardes of Covington; Erin Claire Fernandez and Angelina Neal of Baton Rouge; Gabriella Gregg of Lafitte; Lilianna Gregory of Slidell; Janae' Martin and Natalie Orgeron of Kenner; Olivia Reeves of Laplace; Kairah Senegal of Lafayette; and Gabrielle Woodall of Denham Springs, with Stephen Gerhardt as video editor. Tickets, sold one hour before showtime, are $10 for students, seniors, children, and military, and $15 general admission.

Southeastern Louisiana University has received $129,760 in energy-efficient upgrades from Entergy Solutions. The funds were allocated to update buildings on campus with obsolete global controllers and inefficient pneumatic controls equipment.

The installation of new direct digital control equipment and strategic equipment scheduling will result in reduced energy consumption with an estimated 875,420 kWh saved annually, as well as $70,033 saved annually.

The Entergy Solutions program, instrumental in facilitating this endeavor, offers incentives to Entergy Louisiana customers to undertake energy-saving upgrades in their facilities. This initiative aligns with Entergy's commitment to promoting sustainable practices and reducing energy consumption.

POS Daniel K. Johnson

21st Judicial District Attorney Scott Perrilloux reports Daniel K. Johnson pleaded guilty to three counts of sexual battery where the victim is under the age of 13. He has been sentenced to serve 45 years in prison.

The case opened when the juvenile victim came forward to report the abuse. As the investigation continued, detectives identified three juveniles who had been abused by the defendant.

LPSO deputies investigated and corroborated the victims' claims. Deputies also learned that Johnson called his wife and asked her to remove the SIM cards from all cell phones in their home.

Perrilloux praised the tireless effort of LPSO detectives, who conducted a "thorough and complete investigation" to convict this defendant.

The District Attorney also praised the work of ADA Brett Sommer, who handled this case for the prosecution. Perrilloux said the victims' families fully supported the plea, which guaranteed a conviction for Johnson and spared the victims from the trauma of going through a trial.

torney Scott M. Perrilloux announces a special setting docket this Friday, September 26, 2025, in Amite. Perrilloux said defendant Daniel Wayne Callihan, 38, of Amite, will appear before Judge Brian K. Abels at 9 a.m.

The defendant is charged with two counts of first degree murder, aggravated kidnapping of a child and second degree kidnapping.

The Amite Courthouse is located at 110 North Bay Street in Amite. 21st Judicial District Court rules do not allow cameras/recording equipment inside the courthouse.

The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) has arrested a Hammond teen for several gun-related crimes over the past three months.

Laterrious "Bezo" Braziel, 18, has been booked on one count each of Aggravated Assault by Drive-By, Armed Robbery, Attempted 2nd Degree Murder, Illegal Discharge of a Weapon and Aggravated Criminal Damage.

On July 20, TPSO received reports of shots fired in the area of Mashon Road in Independence. While no one was injured, a car and house was hit by the gunfire. During that investigation, on August 25, TPSO received a report about a gaming device being stolen at gunpoint at a home on Happywoods Road in Hammond. From there, detectives determined Braziel was the suspect in both cases. As detectives were actively attempting to locate Braziel, on September 17, TPSO received a report about a man being shot at while driving down Baker Lane in Hammond. He was not injured. Detectives quickly identified Braziel as the shooter and added another warrant for his arrest.

This morning, September 24, Braziel was taken into custody at a relative's house without incident.

Fall Garden Day & Plant Sale at LSU AgCenter Hammond

From LSU AgCenter

Hammond, LA – Mark your calendars! The LSU AgCenter Hammond Research Station invites you to its fifth annual Fall Garden Day and Plant Sale on Saturday, October 4, 2025, from 7:30am to 1:00pm at 21549 Old Covington Highway, Hammond, LA 70403.

This family-friendly event will take place rain or shine and offers something for everyone — from seasoned gardeners to curious newcomers.

Browse a wide selection of high-quality plants grown at the station, including chrysanthemums, Louisiana Super Plants, annual bedding, pollinator plants, houseplants, herbs, veggies, trees, shrubs, and unique species from our research station.

Enjoy educational sessions led by LSU AgCenter specialists on topics such as seasonal landscape design, pest and weed control, vegetable gardening, lawn care, and the latest research updates.

Fun for the whole family! The Tangipahoa Master Gardeners host fun children's activities, a mini plant sale, plant swap, education booths, and a garden shop in tandem!

Support Local Horticulture - Proceeds from the plant sale help advance the station's mission to support Louisiana's ornamental horticulture industry. This year, funds will go toward restoring the Piney Woods Garden — damaged during Hurricane Ida — and upgrading plant production areas to better serve research and outreach efforts.

There is a $5 parking fee for each vehicle. For more information about activities and event schedule, please visit https://tinyurl.com/y6sbrxm4.

COLLISION

Ponchatoula Chief of Police Bry Layrisson, officers continue to monitor their recovery, and additional criminal charges may be forthcoming.

The response to the incident was exemplary. Ponchatoula Police Department, Ponchatoula Vol. Fire Dept, and Acadian Ambulance responders were on the scene less than five minutes after the incident. Entergy trucks arrived only a few minutes later.

Traffic was immediately detoured approximately a quarter mile from the wreck site in both directions to prevent roadway congestion and minimize additional risks. At the scene, traffic controls were managed professionally and efficiently by PPD officers.

A new power pole was installed, and power was restored to the area at 8:35pm, hardly two hours after the original pole was destroyed.

The investigation into this incident continues, and Chief Layrisson requests that any witnesses or anyone with additional information contact the Ponchatoula Police Department at (985) 386-6548 or call the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at 1-800-554-5245.

An inter-parish matchup of a pair of teams looking for win number two on the year highlights week number four in LHSAA action when 1-2 St. Helena travels to 1-2 Amite for a 7pm kick off.

The Hawks fly southeast, looking to rebound from a 46-30 loss at Kentwood last week. The Warriors picked up win number one last Friday, pummeling Independence, 43-7.

For AHMS, it's the third home game — and unfortunately for SHCCA, they are 1-2 on the year, with both setbacks coming in Tangipahoa Parish.

Week three also saw Kentwood's (1-2) first win and Loranger's (2-1) first loss — and those two teams square off under the water tower this evening. The two teams faced off in a classic last year on the same field with the Roos taking a 36-34 win — the fourth straight year that the Orange and Blue have knocked off the Red and Black.

As we mentioned, KMHS knocked off St. Helena last time out, while the Wolves fell 28-7 at Jewel Sumner seven days ago. The Roos also took on JSHS earlier this season, falling 29-14 in the Home Town Showdown.

Speaking of the 3-0 Pokes, they put the area's only unblemished mark on the line when they play host to the Livonia Wildcats, who come to North Tangi with a mark of 2-1.

Another inter-parish contest sees the 0-3 Indy Tigers head to Livingston to square off with the 1-2 Albany Hornets. Last week, IHMS were beaten at home by Amite, while AHS lost on the road, 47-24 at East Feliciana. Last year, the Tigers picked up a 27-8 win at home, snapping a six-game losing streak between the two.

Down the road, Springfield is in search of their second straight win — and their first on the field. A week ago, the Bulldogs (1-2) were awarded a 2-0 forfeit win over Crescent City Christian. This week they host 0-3 Haynes Academy.

Ponchatoula's Green Wave (0-3) heads south of the lake out for win number one when they take on 2-1 St. James.

In the Mid-South Association of Independent Schools, the Oak Forest Yellow Jackets head to Mendenhall, MS, to square off with the Simpson Academy Cougars. Both squads enter the contest at 2-2. Simpson won the last meeting 14-7 in 2023, but the year before, OFA's 24-14 win over SA earned the Jackets the 2022 MAIS state championship.

The Southeastern Louisiana Lion football team kicks off Southland Conference play tomorrow night when first-year program Texas-Rio Grande Valley pays a visit to Strawberry Stadium for the Solid Gold Game. SLU enters the contest at 2-2, while the upstart Vaqueros come to town perfect in four games, joining the 2009 South Alabama Jaguars as the only FCS teams to achieve that feat.

The matchup is not only the debut SLC contest for UT-RGV, but it's also their first trip outside the Lone Star State. So far in 2025, Rio Grande Valley has recorded three blowout wins against NCAA Division II schools (66-0 over Sul Ross St, 80-0 over Langston, and 61-13 over Texas-Wesleyan) and a 27-21 win over SWAC foe Prairie View A&M in the team's only road game so far.

As for the home team, the Lions' 2-2 record includes a pair of wins over FCS competition and losses to two in-state FBS programs.

Travis Bush guides the visitors. The TCU alum is in his first year as a collegiate head coach, sporting a mark of 4-0. The former Southwest Texas Bobcat spent eight years as a high school head coach in Texas, with a career record of 47-38. He's opposed by eighth year skipper Frank Scelfo, who is 46-38 during his time in Hammond.

Kickoff is set for 6. The game can be heard locally on the Southeastern Sports Radio Network and will stream on ESPN+.

You can also see live stats during the game and read up more on the contest beforehand by logging on to the official website of SLU Athletics, lionsports.net.

Veterans Celebration Car Show
Saturday, November 1, 2025
We are thrilled to announce the first-ever Tangipahoa Parish Veterans Celebration Car Show in Ponchatoula's Memorial Park.
This special event is more than just a showcase of classic and custom cars – it's a heartfelt tribute to our veterans and a vibrant addition to a community celebration honoring their service.
Applications are now open!
If you've got a ride worth showing off, we want to see it!
- Participants will have early access to the staging area before the influx of attendees (parade starts at 9:00am).
- All accepted car show participants will have the option to roll at the front of the Ponchatoula Celebrates Veterans parade that precedes the car show. This is a high-visibility honor and a unique way to be a part of the festivities!

It's free to join!
Come celebrate with a day of festivities as we honor our veterans!

St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce and U.S. Chamber Foundation to Present 2026 National Civics Bee®

From the St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce

The St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce is proud to partner with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation to bring the National Civics Bee to south Louisiana for the 2025-2026 program year. This annual initiative – now expanding to all 50 states in celebration of America's 250th anniversary in 2026 – invites 6th, 7th and 8th grade students to showcase their civics knowledge, engage in their communities, and build trust in others and institutions through a nonpartisan, multi-round competition.

The National Civics Bee begins with a written essay and culminates in live events at the regional, state and national levels where students can compete for cash prizes at each level. Finalists who advance to the National Championship in Washington, D.C., will also compete for national recognition and a $100,000 529 education savings plan contribution. Thanks to the generous support of the Fisher Global Foundation, the first-place winner in each state may also secure a $5,000 donation for their school.

"Informed and active citizens contribute to a strong country, a strong economy and a strong workforce," says Michelle Biggs, Vice President of the St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce. "Unfortunately, in today's society, the lack of civil discourse on social media reduces the value and substance of political debate. With this exciting program, we can turn to civics to teach us how to disagree agreeably and move forward together. When students learn about our nation's past, they are more prepared to deal with issues in the present and future."

The essay application portal opened Sept. 8 and closes Feb. 3, 2026, at 4:59am Central Standard Time (CST). All students throughout South Louisiana in grades 6-8 are encouraged to apply. For more information, visit https://sttammanychamber.org/civicsbee/.

"As we approach America's 250th anniversary, we have a powerful opportunity – and responsibility – to reignite civic learning across the country. Our hope is that the National Civics Bee inspires more schools to prioritize civics education, equipping young people with a deeper understanding of how our government and democracy work – and the essential role they play in strengthening their communities and our nation," said Hilary Crow, vice president of civics at the U.S. Chamber Foundation.

For more information about entering the National Civics Bee, visit https://sttammanychamber.org/civicsbee/. For interview requests or additional information, please contact justin@gambelpr.com.
